About the ASA: The American Sociological Association (ASA), founded in 1905, is a non-profit membership association dedicated to advancing sociology as a scientific discipline and profession serving the public good. ASA seeks to stimulate and improve research, teaching, and discussion, and to encourage cooperative relations among those engaged in the scientific study of society.

Any individual interested in these objectives is eligible for membership in the ASA. All members receive a printed copy of the newsletter Footnotes. All members receive online access to all (non-section) ASA journals and a subscription to the TRAILS online database of teaching resources as a benefit of membership. Regular, student, and associate membership also includes one printed journal. Members also receive discounts on Annual Meeting registration, ASA publications and merchandise, workshops, and other member services. To join online, see www.asanet.org

Membership is on a calendar year basis (January 1-December 31)

- Applications received before October 1, 2016, will become effective for the 2016 calendar year.
- Those received on or after October 1, 2016, will be processed for the 2017 calendar year.
