59th Annual Meeting

AUGUST 31—SEPTEMBER 3

Sheraton—Mt. Royal Hotel

Montreal, Canada

VILLE DE MONTRÉAL
Cabinet du Maire

April 29, 1964

Dear Visitors:

It gives me great pleasure, as Mayor of Montréal, to welcome you to our City for your 1964 Annual Convention which is being held from August 31 to September 3.

For the first time in its history, the American Sociological Association has elected to hold its convention outside the United States and we are both pleased and honoured that Montréal has been chosen as the host City.

In 1967 Canada celebrates the centenary of Confederation and simultaneously the Universal and International Exhibition is being held in Montréal. These events tie in extremely well with the holding of conventions such as yours and we hope that you will have an opportunity to see the site during your visit.

The charm of "Old Montréal" provides a fascinating contrast to the modern City which offers first-class facilities to visitors including hotels and fashionable restaurants, and a great variety of places of entertainment.

I sincerely hope that you will enjoy your visit to Montréal and that your convention will be a great success.

JEAN DRAPEAU
MAYOR OF MONTRÉAL

THE MacIVER LECTURESHIP

The MacIver Lectureship, awarded annually to the author of a publication which has made an outstanding contribution to the progress of sociology, represents one of the major gestures of recognition by the profession and the American Sociological Association. The Award was established several years ago, on the initiation of Professor Theodore Abel, to honor Robert M. MacIver whose own work has done so much to advance the field.

The American Sociological Association believes that the MacIver Award is a significant factor in maintaining the highest standards of scholarly publication.

The Association would like to express its deep appreciation to Theodore Abel, Morroe Berger, and Charles Page, who have donated royalties from Freedom and Control in Modern Society, published by the Octagon Press, to the MacIver Award fund.

In addition, the Association wishes to thank the following publishers who have pledged contributions to the MacIver Award fund over the next five years.
